5. Acknowledgements

I would like to extend a special thanks to the staff at the University Secretariat, and in particular Kara Miller and Bob Mann. The post-pandemic has seen a significant spike in the volume and seriousness of cases being handled by the Office of Senate Discipline and Appeals. Kara and Bob have managed the increased volume with characteristic responsiveness and efficiency. If the volume does not abate, additional resource may be required. Appreciation as well to all the faculty and students who have served on the hearing panels.

Respectfully submitted,
